

MASTERS DEGREE PROGRAM EN FINANCE

The Masters Degree program in Finance of Universidad de Montevideo provides an opportunity for in-depth study of current State-of-the-Industry theories, analytic methods, and problem-solving techniques, emphasizing their practical use in corporate finance and the capital markets. With top national and international faculty and results-driven curriculum, the Masters Degree Program in Finance prepares students with the skills, insight and real-world experiences needed to excel in today's business world in order to:

- Interpret macroeconomic and microeconomic information and understand its impact on a company
- Understand the operation of domestic and international capital markets, of different financial entities and futures contracts assessment and derived instruments.
- Understand how exchange rates are determined and how exposure to exchange risk is handled.
- Understand the specific characteristics of emerging markets.
- Understand the contribution of Finance in a company's strategy.
- Evaluate investment options based on risk and return.
- Use and apply the various methods available for the valuation of companies and the calculation of capital cost.
- Carry out cost analysis and financial planning.
- Understand the statistical and econometric tools used in financial analysis.
- Determine the statistical and econometric tools used in financial analysis.
- Determine the most appropriate financing structure for different types of business ventures.
- Understand the basic aspects of tax and corporation regulations in Uruguayan Law.
- Manage the working capital of company efficiently

Target

The Masters Program is designed for university graduates with professional experience. Students will broaden their knowledge and obtain a multidisciplinary and global perspective in Finance

Study Plan

Students will actively participate in presentations, discussions, and actives highlighting practical business applications, current event applications, problem solving, analysis of case studies, and other financial applications.

