

Luisa Peirano, Ph.D.
Director of International Affairs
Universidad de Montevideo

Email: international@um.edu.uy

Luisa Peirano holds a Ph.D. in Public Communications from the University of Navarre, a Licentiate in Arts from the Universidad de la Republica in Uruguay and a professorship of Arts from the Catholic University of Argentina (UCA) in Buenos Aires. She was a Fulbright Research Scholar at Columbia University's Graduate School of Journalism in 2004, and a Hubert Humphrey Fellow in the College of Journalism at the University of Maryland in 2008-2009.

As director of International Affairs at the Universidad de Montevideo, she has wide experience in organizing international programs, lecture series and cultural events. She routinely works with different university departments as well as representatives of the arts, academic and diplomatic communities.

As an author and editor of books and articles, she has worked with publishers in Uruguay, Argentina and the United States: Indice complexivo de los Cuadernos de Marcha (Montevideo, El Galeón, 2013); Tristán Narvaja, un jurista rioplatense en tiempos de la codificación by Jorge Peirano Facio (Buenos Aires: Instituto de Investigaciones de Historia del Derecho, 2008); "Ramón Díaz and the Spread of Liberal Ideas in Uruguay" (New York: The Freeman, 2004); "La primera época de los Cuadernos de Marcha" in Marcha y América Latina (Pittsburgh: University of Pittsburgh, 2003); Marcha de Montevideo (Buenos Aires: Vergara, 2001), "A semiotic approach to Christina's World of Andrew Wyeth" in Semiotics around the World: Synthesis in Diversity (Berlin-New York: Mouton de Gruyter, 1997). El Valor del Ejemplo (Montevideo: Unión Latina, 1994).

Selected Works

