Global Supply Networks & Manufacturing Culture in Latin America

The course involves significant teamwork and allows students to complete an in-depth analysis of the global supply networks and manufacturing culture in Latin America with Uruguay as a reference.

- Spend 2 weeks in Uruguay
- Earn 3 technical credits
- Study Global Supply Chains
- Analyze supply networks in Latin America
- Complete an exciting project
- Visit Uruguayan companies

May 20 - May 31, 2013

Study Abroad Program for engineering and business students

Applications are due no later than March 31, 2013
Cost for non-Pitt students: $3,075.00
Limited scholarships are available.
Forms are available at: www.um.edu.uy/internacional
Contact: internacional@um.edu.uy